

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

2-24-22

PERFORMANCE GAP/ ACTIVITY NEED: It is important for physicians to be aware of the high incidence of stroke and other cardiovascular diseases linked to SARS-CoV-2 Infection and other associations related to long hauler syndrome.

DESIRED OUTCOMES: At the end of the activity, attendees will be able to:

- Identify stroke and cardiovascular disease occurring in the setting of COVID-19.
- Discuss probable pathogenic mechanisms related to the increased risk for stroke and CVD in the setting of SARS-CoV-2 infection.
- Discuss evidence-based prevention for stroke and CVD in the setting of SARS-CoV-2 infection.

LEARNERS: cardiologists, neurologist, infectious disease, OBGYN, internists, general/family practitioners, radiologists, pathologists, pharmacists

DESIRABLE PHYSICIAN ATTRIBUTE: provide patient-centered care, work in multidisciplinary teams